

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palace of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palae of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palace of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palace of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palace of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.

William R.

Hereas Our Game in and about Our Palace of Hampton-Court in the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, hath of late years been much destroyed by Persons pretending Leave from Us, and by Hawking, Hunting, and Setting at unseasonable and unlawful Times in the Year; Our Will and Pleasure is, That henceforward no Person of what Quality soever, (without Our particular Leave first obtained) presume to kill or destroy any Hare, Partridge, Pheasant, Heath-Powt, Heron, Duck or Mallard, within Ten miles round about Our said Palace of Hampton-Court, by Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Coursing, Shooting, Tunnelling, Gins, or any way whatsoever, nor to disturb the Game there, under pretence of Shooting at Birds; nor to keep or use any Greyhounds, Lurchers, Setting Dogs or Guns excepting such Persons only as shall be thereunto qualified by the Laws made for the preservation of the Game; and that none so qualified, suffer their Servants, or any under the notion of such, to Shoot, Set or Course, or by any ways whatsoever to destroy and kill any of the aforementioned Game, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. And to the end none may plead Ignorance of Our Pleasure in this Matter, We do further Command that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and that Copies thereof be left with the Constable or Tythingman of every Parish within Ten miles of Our said Palace of Hampton-Court. And all Justices of the Peace, and other Our Officers concerned, are hereby Required to be Aiding and Assisting to Our Game-keepers in the legal Execution of their Offices, and the bringing to due Punishment all Offenders herein according to Law.

Given at Our Palace of Hampton-Court the Eighth day of July 1689, In the First Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesties Command,

SHREWSBURY.

LONDON, Printed by Charles Bill, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties. 1689.